Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. James

Dearest Bob and Mahtaj,

On this first anniversary of your darling daughter's passing from this life, we join you in loving remembrance of Anika Michelle James, and all the fine and wondrous qualities of heart and mind that made her a special young lady – one who touched the lives of many for the better, one they were glad to know and grateful to have met.

As your family again sends up prayers for the progress of Anika's precious soul, know that their sweet reverberations will be merged with our own, offered in the serene stillness of the Mother Temple's grand auditorium. There we will supplicate the Blessed Beauty to tenderly take her hand and lead Anika to the everlasting "garden of happiness," that she might bathe in its crystal waters and survey, from its "loftiest mount," sights "holy and spiritually glorious" that someday, reunited once more, you will together delight in.

With loving Bahá'í regards,

Kenneth E. Bowers
Secretary-General
